

School Psychology and You

Do you have what it takes to be a school psychologist?

Do you enjoy studying psychology (i.e. testing and measurement, developmental psychology, learning and cognition, statistics, abnormal psychology, and family systems)? Do you enjoy working with school-aged students (i.e. Kg - 12th grade)? Then, a career as a School Psychology may be the ideal for you!

WE ARE EXPERTS IN

Learning

Behavior

Mental Health

School Systems

STATISTICS

#2

IN BEST SOCIAL SERVICES JOBS BY USA NEWS 2018

78k

AVERAGE SALARY US NEWS

WE SUPPORT

Struggling and diverse learners

Safe and supportive learning environments

Student achievement and well-being

School-wide data-based decision making

School-community-family partnerships

WE PROVIDE

Academic, behavioral, and mental health supports

Evaluation, assessment, and data analysis

Consultation with teachers and families

Culturally responsive services

Crisis prevention and response

REQUIREMENTS Graduate degree | Preferred major in psychology

GET MORE INFO AND FIND GRADUATE PROGRAMS www.nasponline.org | www.casponline.org

LMU 2018 | Haley Walin