

The emotional brain has first dibs on interpreting incoming information:

Directions:

- Describe each part of the brain
- Label the low road and describe
- Label the high road and describe
- Name two stress hormones and their role in stress response