Pursuant to the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 and provisions contained in lobbying tax laws, CASP is required to inform members that 14% of your dues payment is non-deductible as an "ordinary and necessary" business expense. Contributions of gifts to CASP are not tax deductible as charitable contributions. However, they may be tax deductible under other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

CASP occasionally sells its mailing list to private and nonprofit corporations related to the school psychology profession. CASP does not offer for sale its members' e-mail addresses, phone numbers or fax numbers.
