

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS

November 9, 2020

THANK YOU!!

In honor of National School Psychology Week (NSPW), we want to THANK YOU for your service to students, teachers, parents, and school staffs.

We know this has been an extraordinarily difficult year. You are dealing with COVID-19, distance learning, Zoom meetings, overdue timelines, student mental health and emotional issues, assessment challenges, stressed parents, stressed teachers, stressed colleagues, And you are working overtime – often evenings and weekends to respond to those in need.

We could not be more PROUD to be your fellow school psychologists and to stand with you at this time. We are in this together. We will get through this.

Take time for yourself and for your family.
Take care of yourself.

We may not have all the answers. Not everything will get done on time and to our high standards. But what needs to get done to support our students will be completed.

Our students, our schools, our communities are better off each day because
WE ARE SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS.
WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

THANK YOU for all you do each day!

Let's celebrate National School Psychology Week!

From President Jeannine Topalian and your CASP Board
